

LEGALIZATION OF DRUGS

The American Academy of Addiction Psychiatry maintains the position that any new legislation supporting recreational drug legalization and taxable sales must concurrently provide robust research and development of public health safety policies to prevent substance-related harms and substance use disorders and must also provide adequate funding for prevention of such harms and treatment of substance use disorder that may expand with greater legal access.:

Approved by AAAP Board of Directors: September 1990 Reviewed: May 2015, Revised: July 2018

This statement by the American Academy of Addiction Psychiatry is not intended to serve as a standard of medical care or treatment, nor does it necessarily reflect the views of individual AAAP members. This statement is not intended for use in making judgments about appropriate methods of care, treatment, or procedures, medical malpractice, disability determination, competency, or any other medical or legal matters.